

again by midnight. Mrs. Paul Andrews M.

ON THE BRIGHT SIDE.

How the Society People are Enjoying Themselves.

THE GAY SPRING SEASON.

Entertainments During the Week.—Washington Society Abroad.—Well-Known People who Will Sail Soon.—Many Pretty Weddings.—Personal Notes of Interest.

Mrs. Parker has had a quiet week at the White House, although she has been hospitably entertaining a friend, and sometimes more, on Sunday evenings. The latter are attended by Mr. Harrison and his family.

John Robinson, Mrs. Henry May and Mrs. Jesse Tyson are among those who have taken boxes for the performances here. The ladies are visitors of the Children's Hospital and are the patronesses of the event. Mrs. Hobson is in charge of the details. Mrs. Warder, Mrs. Nevin, Mrs. Bickett, Mrs. D. P. Morgan, Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. DeBenedictis, Gen. and Mrs. Berdan, Admiral and Mrs. Franklin, Senator and Mrs. McPherson and Lieut. and Mrs. Slack are among those who will take parties. A fashionable audience witnessed the full dress rehearsal last night in Baltimore, which was stage managed by Mr. George May.

Miss Eustis, returned from Aiken, where she spent the winter, early the past week, and the Corcoran mansion is again open. Miss Eustis and her aunt will stay here now until they start for their summer travel.

Mrs. F. W. Nordlinger has discontinued her Tuesdays at home.

The marriage of Miss Annie E. Brashear to the oldest daughter of Mr. B. A. Brashear, to Mr. Samuel A. Taylor took place at Christ Church on Sunday last.

President's party continue to give short but graphic accounts of the good time they are having and the good things they are doing.

During the past week all the carpets throughout the White House and all the curtains have been removed and the worst of the spring cleaning will be over before the return of the family. The blue room carpet, having only been put down a month or so ago, will not be touched, it will be covered over with linen for the summer.

Mrs. Harrison will, it is expected, again commence her Saturday afternoon portico reception for the band concerts, and through June the White House will be enlivened by these and similar events.

Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris and the latter's daughters—Miss Vivien and Miss Rosemary—will be here on Monday, and during their short stay will be at the Arlington. Mrs. Sartoris is a familiar figure to the White House, her daughters the sights and scenes familiar to her own childhood, and especially the White House, by Mr. Clifford Taylor, cousin of the groom and Miss Agnes Wall of Mount Pleasant. After the formal reception at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Taylor, at 1200 Wisconsin street southwest, the young couple started on a southern trip.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Watts will be pleased to have their friends call at their residence, 402 24 street northwest, on Wednesday afternoon from 8 to 10 o'clock, to meet their son, Edward J., and bride. The friends of both families will be cordially made welcome.

Miss Carrie Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, has returned home, after spending the winter in St. Louis.

Mrs. Percy L. Seufferle and Mrs. E. E. Parker were married by Rev. Dr. Bুদ্ধall of the First Episcopal E. Church, Baltimore, April 12 last. The young couple are now in the city.

The friends have the best wishes and hearty congratulations of all who know them. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will return home to their residence at No. 431 M street northwest, on Monday.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Devereaux was pleasantly celebrated last evening at their residence, No. 54 14 street northwest. The handsome parlors were elaborately decorated with palms and ferns and flowers. A collation was served. To silver service sets were presented, one by St. Paul's society, which Mr. Devereaux is president of, and another by the directors of the District Real Estate Association. Many other gifts were received. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Walter, Rev. S. Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pie, Rev. W. P. Cowdell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gheen, Rev. W. A. Noll, Rev. J. F. McGee, Mr. M. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eckhardt, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. King and Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Noll, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. McChine, Mrs. Watkins, Mr. F. A. Byrne, J. J. Malone, Mr. E. McDonald, E. Mallot, Jr., and A. J. Schwartz.

Rev. Solomon Stone. The bride was handsomely attired in a traveling dress of tan cloth trimmed with a darker shade of velvet, with a long and light blue tulle train. She carried a bunch of La France roses. The ushers were Messrs. E. Clay Shirner and Jesse C. Shirner, and the bridesmaids were Miss Anna H. Westmeyer, Edith, player, and Edith, student. The drawing room was handsomely decorated with palms and evergreens. After a reception of about half an hour, the bride and groom, best man and good wishes and came to this city. They will reside for the present at 915 New York avenue, where they will be at home to their friends on Tuesday.

There is a good deal of go-as-you-please in social movements nowadays. The weddings of the past week brought out large audiences and the pretty spectacles provided for society's delight were of the most elaborate. The brides and bridesmaids received their just meed of praise. There are some more weddings due yet in the "deafy month of June" about which there will be no doubt.

events, the gay world's fashion has had the fascinations of the race track and the circus ring for extra novelties the past few days. The fashion week will end up delightfully, tripping the light fantastic this afternoon about the Despatch as Capt. Cowie's guest, at a very merry party, and a very sumptuous and farwell feast for many of those who tear themselves away from the gayeties here in a few days more to lend their smiles and applause to the superlative entertainment on the other side of the Atlantic.

It is no small privation to leave town now, when there is every day so much planned to do as a rule, and the week is so short.

On next Wednesday afternoon and on all the Wednesdays in May there will be a 5 o'clock tea at the Country Club, and these entertainments will fill all that fashion will demand for one short hour.

Gen. and Mrs. Wilcox have invited a company for a fete chaumetre on Tuesday, the 5th.

in white India silk, trimmed with handsome silk lace, caught up with sprays of white lilacs. Her hat was of the lace and lilacs. She carried a bouquet of white lilacs. The party then followed at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Frank Orand, to the relative only. At 10 o'clock the bridal couple started on their honeymoon to the west, where they will be at home to their friends at 940 New York avenue.

The two given by the Misses Barber & Georgetown was one of the most delightful of the American season. The guests were the Billings, the Misses Stevens, Miss Green, the Misses Forrest, Miss Elliott, the Misses Reed, Miss Bayley, Miss Compton, Mrs. Plater, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. E. E. Egan, Mrs. E. E. Egan, William and Malcolm Henry, H. Weyth, Kate Forrest, F. Myers, Plater Green, W. Sims, Bradley, W. Riley and John Shepherd.

The E. E. Egan, New York avenue northwest, has the most beautiful home in the district, and her sister, Miss Emma Adams,

Snyder, Mrs. and Miss Greenless and Messrs
William and Malcolm Henry, H. Wyeth, Kelt

An enjoyable surprise party was given in the evening to Miss May Johnson at her residence, 509 Massachusetts avenue northwest. Among the guests were Misses Mary Slaw, Mary Craft, Ethel Johnson, Ida Carter, Mrs. M. H. Hubert, Addie Smith, Mabel Willoughby, Ed Whitford and Masters Wallace Ormoe, Charles Ormoe, Mrs. J. C. Carter, Mrs. E. E. Fraser, Addie Smith, Sidney Johnson, Charles Butler, Mrs. J. C. Johnson and Edward Wells.

The Denison School Glee Club met last night at the residence of Miss Mabel Latimer, No. 1215 Washington street, and an instrumental concert must be furnished by Misses Mabel Latimer, Virgie Clabaugh and Marion Slater. Games were indulged in, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Halli Murray, Mary Slaw, Mary Craft, May Baker, Gertrude Britton, Mamie Bohrer, Masters Gene Coppenhaver, Frank Lacy, Fred Johnson, Mrs. J. C. Carter, Mrs. E. E. Fraser and a large contingent of young ladies present at the home last night held at Washington street.

lately. Madame Tse has learned to walk splendidly, and so have her lady companions. They are now able to walk in the park, and during their afternoon amble in the park, under the hood of Dupont Circle they slide their thirst in this delicious compound with great pleasure. The ladies have quite a few things to carry, as she has grown used to carrying them. She wears gold bracelets and coming here. She wears gold bracelets and some other jewelry, but in her attire there is nothing to attract the eye. She is dressed in the latest fashion, and the ladies are always accompanied by a maid, an intelligent Chinese woman, who wears an expression of such good nature as to cause all to like her. She speaks the English language can talk English and German, and wears shoes big enough for her fat feet, a comfort denied her superiors in rank and station.

Born at Bayreuth, Germany, who went down to Mexico after their marriage, and will go abroad this summer and will spend three months at Bayreuth. They will be present at the musical festival there. When they return to New York, they will be in the city.

GRAND ANNUAL EXCURSION OF THE PALMERSTON NATURAL J. FENTIS TO RIVER VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and Miss Williams will spend the summer months abroad, and will visit Leyreuth during the musical festival there.

Senor Mendonces and his family will summer in the Adirocadas. He is building a picturesque home there in a most romantic spot, which will be ready for occupancy when the family leave here in June.

Mrs. Morton and her eldest daughter are going abroad for the summer and sail next Wednesday on the Tenonic. The voyage will be on the same ship as the London season, as Mrs. and Miss Cameron, Miss Blaine, Mr. Truxton Beale, Miss Fancette and Mrs. and Miss Mitchell are some of those who will sail on the same ship, and back to England the days at sea for each other. On the other side their plans, which generally look forward to seeing a good bit of the London season, will be the same.

Did Not Attempt Suicide.

Louis O. Shaner, who was taken from house on 18th street early Tuesday morning to the Emergency Hospital, supposed to have attempted suicide, has entirely recovered, and now turns out that he was overcome by drink.

A Verdict of Accidental Death.

The coroner yesterday held a jury of inquest on the body of the boy, Alfred Ghiviziani, who was killed by an engine of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad at 6th street and Maryland avenue Thursday afternoon, and which rendered that the death was accidental.

PLACE 1000 MARK at interest with Woods & Co., Bankers
1222 F. St.

He Believed the Tickets Good.

James Nasie, the YOUNG MAN who was Phonographs gone overhead of her mother and sisters so as to make some London visits. Lady Sturges has already arranged her sailing date.

Mrs. R. F. Hitt will probably spend the summer abroad, but has not yet definitely settled over her plans.

Mrs. McPherson is also thinking of going to Europe during the summer, but as yet has no definite plan.

Ex-Gov. Carroll's family will not start for Europe until late this month.

Washington society will have a chance not only to enjoy a first-class entertainment, but at the same time to aid the Children's Hospital, when the "Pirates of Penzance," next Tuesday evening at the Academy of Music by Baltimore Grand Opera Company.

The Baltimore Talent Society have this afternoon given a concert over the first performance on Monday evening, and there is scarcely a peep hole that can now be bought.

At the same time, the Baltimore Talent Society were yesterday for selling worthless street car tickets to newboys, as published in yesterday's Star, was tried in the Police Court today, the charge against him being suspicion. It is shown that Nagle found the tickets and sold them to the boys, and when he found that they were worthless returned the money he had collected for them.

Judge Kimball thought that the young man acted in a honorable manner and the charge against him was dropped.

For the Eye of Wheelman.
To the Editor of the Evening Star:
I would like to call the attention of those men so on imposition on the traveling public by some bicyclers. The other day two young men dismounted in the street midway between the curb and car track and so obstructed the way that I had to drive around them. In the evening I saw the same two young men and dismounted from their bicycles at a street corner ties and talented to the greatest degree, will be given the freedom of this city when they come here on Thursday. A committee of young society people at the station and special them up to the Arlington. They will travel here and back in a Pullman car and each of them will be entertained as a supper at the Arlington before the show. Mr. Warder offered to give them the use of the car for their performance, but they reluctantly declined this tempting honor, as they take the train home

10th and H. and so obstructed the sidewalk that the police had to remove it. It was no use, it was in a pile in the street. I barely managed to get through. Many of the bicyclists take much more liberty than the public thinks belong to them.

L. S. CHAPMAN.

— Iron Holders Still Out.

There is no class in the city so unpopular as the striking iron molders are concerned. 7 employers have not yielded to the demands of the men and the latter are still out.